Expectations

- I/We understand the importance of following instructions from a member of staff or adult on the first time of asking.
- I/We understand and support the school in ensuring that my son/daughter will take only one mobile phone on this trip and that its use and access will be determined by the trip leader.
- I/ We understand that electronic devices such as iPod, iPad or surface tablets will be allowed on this trip. Students bring their own devices at their own risk.
- I/We understand the importance of sensible and safe behaviour at all times on the visit.
- I/We understand that the drinking of alcohol, the smoking of cigarettes and the taking of illegal substances is strictly not permitted.
- I/We understand that the staff could enforce sanctions on the visit if any of the criteria outlined are not kept to.
- I/We understand that irresponsible behaviour will not be tolerated and that parents will be contacted and possibly arrangements made for return home.
- I/We understand that failure to maintain the high standards and expectations that The Market Weighton School has abroad could affect my position on future school visits.
