

Y8 summer term 1 supercurriculum

Half Term one: Visit	Read	Write/ create	Research
Half Term 1: Of Mice and Men’s rural setting is crucially important to the novel. Visit Skidby Mill to learn about the rural history of East Yorkshire and to deepen your understanding of local culture and East Riding’s farming past.	Another book by John Steinbeck. The Red Pony and The Pearl are both excellent shorter novels, while East of Eden is a classic with a more adult tone.	A piece of writing in first person from one of the characters in the book. We only hear from them through the narrator as the book is written in the third person narrative. So for example you could write from the perspective of Curley’s wife or Candy or Crooks either retell a chapter of the story from their perspective or you could write a diary entry or letter from one of these characters.	The Historical context of Great Depression in America which is the setting of the novel Of Mice and Men, You could listen to the History Extra podcast on The Great Depression to deepen your understanding. https://podcasts.apple.com/us/podcast/the-great-depression-everything-you-wanted-to-know/id256580326?i=1000543992939